America's War Aims "Program of World's Peace", Says President in Address Today

BAKER DECLARES TEUTON ATTACK WEST FRONT DRAWS NEAR

Delay In Action Caused By Time Required to Get Troops Massed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—A gigantic German thrust on the west front possibly their greatest assault during the war—is impending, Secretary of War Baker declared in his weekly military review today. In the great battle, the Germans, Baker said, "may be counted upon to strain every fiber of their remaining strength in an endeavor to make their plans succeed."

The delay in the assault, predicted weeks ago by the German press and allied war chiefs has been due to the time necessary for concentration of "large troop masses, adequate artillery and ample reserves of munitions," Baker said.

Allies have been victors. He counsels the American people "on the eve of a possible German offensive," to recall that the allies in the past have always come out victorious.

The text follows: "Six weeks have elapsed since the first rumors reached us of the great thrust in the west which the enemy then announced as imminent."

"In order to concentrate large troop masses, adequate artillery and ample reserve of munitions, much time is required."

"Though the German high command has so long delayed before beginning operations, advances received seemingly confirm the information on that important actions are contemplated along the western front."

Will Make Big Effort. "They may be counted on to strain every fiber of their remaining strength in an endeavor to make their plans succeed."

"In considering the general military situation on the eve of a possible German offensive, it must be recalled that through sixteen successive battles of great magnitude in Flanders, the British have every time come out victorious and pushed steadily ahead. Their gains have been methodical and cumulative."

"The Germans have during this long series of major operations invariably been forced to give way."

"The French stood like a rock at Verdun and soon after drove forward victoriously in the battle of the Somme and in turn played a great part in repeated drives in Flanders."

"The impending German offensive will possibly be their greatest assault. The French and British armies can be relied upon to withstand the shock."

'MIGHT RIGHT,' SAYS VON LIEB IN SPEECH

ZURICH, Jan. 8.—"We must recognize only one principle, that might is right and must know neither sentiment nor consideration of humanity or compassion," said General von Lieb in a speech before the conservative congress in which he declared Germany must have Courland, Belgium and Northern France.

FAVOR IMPORTATION OF CHINESE LABOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—Importation of Chinese farm labor for the period of the war was favored today by the California Development Board. The board announced that an investigation showed a serious labor shortage affecting agricultural sections and sentiment favoring Chinese labor.

COAL LINE IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Many women and children dropped from exhaustion after standing in line all day waiting their turn for coal being sold in small lots here Sunday.

SUSPENSION ACTION OF LAW

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The section of the Clayton anti-trust law which prohibits the railroads from holding securities of more than $50,000 in other corporations was today suspended until January 1919.

ULTIMATUM FOR N. Y.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Mme. Amelia Galli-Curci has New York flat on its back. She declares positively she will not sing in that city this winter, declaring she has tired herself out trying to entertain Chicago opera fans.

Do YOU Realize the SERIOUSNESS of the Situation?

Over and over, again and again the warning note is sounded from Washington that—

"The people have not yet awakened to the necessity of sacrifice if they are to remain freemen; if civilization, as exemplified in this nation, is to live. They have not yet realized the necessity of digging deep into their pockets for the funds with which to finance war."

And the country press is urged to do everything in its power to awaken the people of the small towns and the farms to this necessity.

The government is able to reach the cities. It can reach the men in the large factories and put them into the munition and ship building plants. It can arouse the enthusiasm of the people of the cities. But it is only through the country press that it can reach the country.

Civilization will win this war, but whether it is won quickly or after a long and terrible time of strain and effort is for the people of the country towns and the farms to decide. These people are the backbone of the nation; they are that substantial element whose whole-hearted support for a cause means speedy success.

Hence the iteration and reiteration of war needs in the columns of this newspaper—it is simply trying to respond, to the best of its ability, to the call of our common country.

Just now it seems opportune to concentrate in a campaign for the sale of Thrift Stamps. This is a form of interest-bearing war securities in which PENNIES CAN BE INVESTED, and in which A HUNDRED MILLION PEOPLE MAY PARTICIPATE.

No man, no woman is so rich or so busy but that it is worth his or her while to encourage the boys and girls of the family to buy THRIFT STAMPS. And none is so poor but that he may have some part in the great and patriotic public service that will be rendered by the UNIVERSAL buying of Thrift Stamps.

It is not merely the money that will be made available to the government—though that will be a great thing, greater in amount than you may think possible,—but it is that MILLIONS OF PEOPLE WILL HAVE A PART IN THE SERVICE—all will become soldiers, fighting the country's battles.

Thus will the national consciousness be aroused and the individual consciousness consecrated.

Every penny invested in Thrift Stamps will perform manifold service. It will educate and enthuse and consecrate the whole family. It will not merely support the army in the field, but it will teach the boys and girls, and some older people, the value of money, even of pennies; it will inculcate thrift; it will show the lowliest lad in the country that he may stand shoulder to shoulder with the President of the United States in performing a patriotic public service—each doing the best he can and thus each doing equally well.

Factories Will NOT ABIDE BY COMMISSION DECISION

Hoover Now Suggests Investigation By the Federal Trade Body

That the sugar factories refuse to go forward with the harmony plan outlined by the Food Administration and that Hoover proposes to compel them to stand by the results of a proposed investigation by the Federal Trade Commission is news received today by Attorney Clyde Bishop from the Food Administration. Bishop is attorney for the Associated Beet Growers of California.

The wire to Bishop reads as follows: "We have been unable to get the beet sugar factories to acquiesce in any plan for a joint commission the decision of which all parties are to abide by, nor will they then consent to appear before a commission appointed at the instance of the growers. We therefore believe, in order to get definite results, that an investigation by the Federal Trade Commission would be more expeditious and more efficacious, as they have wider powers than the food administration and can order hearings and investigations which require the parties to appear before it, under subpoena and testify under oath. We are submitting this as an alternative for the commission which you ask us to appoint at your instance, believing that the question of the price of sugar being national in its scope would require one tribunal to pass upon the matters in each producing territory, to the end that it would have before it all the facts and circumstances in each territory and be able to determine the difference in conditions that are known to prevail in such producing territories. "We believe that if the parties will acquiesce in this suggestion the Federal Trade Commission would at once undertake the hearing, but before we can get definite data in that regard we would first like your views. Will you take this matter up with the parties represented by you in your conference with us?"

"FOOD ADMINISTRATION," GROWERS STAND FIRM. "This afternoon Attorney Bishop for the growers wired to the Food Administration asking that the plan agreed upon in Washington for a commission be fulfilled. The wire declares that the growers never expected the factories to acquiesce in any plan that recognizes the rights of organized growers or of individual growers to do anything but grow beets to be handled by the factories at the factories' prices. The Associated Beet Growers is against having the Federal Trade Commission investigation, but asks for the Food Commission to carry out its promise to establish a commission of five, to be composed of one grower, one factory man and three others."

RANDALL DENIES CUT IN RAILROAD SERVICE

PASADENA, Jan. 8.—A telegram received in Pasadena yesterday from Congressman Charles H. Randall stating that Secretary McAdoo's railway program does not contemplate crippling transcontinental train service. Congressman Randall, in his wire, says:

"No limited trains west have been annulled by Mr. McAdoo, and he does not contemplate any such action. If such a thing is proposed individual railroad managements are responsible and in this case their action should be held to indicate a desire to make Government management unpopular."

SAM CRAWFORD PEEVED AT MGR. DETROITERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—Sam Crawford would like to play with San Francisco next year if he doesn't sign up with some major club, he told Jerry Downs, San Francisco manager. Crawford is very wrath at Manager Hugh Jennings of Detroit, for releasing him, and his first ambition is said to be to sign with some other major league club and "show Jennings up." Failing in that he wants to play on the coast.

GERMANY FAILS TO CONCUR IN LLOYD GEORGE STATEMENT

Indications Are That Terms Will Not Be Accepted As Peace Discussion Basis

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Preliminary reports indicated today that Germany is indisposed to accept Lloyd George's peace terms as a basis for negotiations.

However, other advices showed that Germany's liberals are beginning to assert themselves more strongly than ever before. This gave some hope that the internal reconstruction desired by the allies and the United States as a peace basis will eventually get under way.

The liberal opposition to Germany's annexation plans for Russia was considered as perhaps the most hopeful sign the Teuton mind has shown. While some here suggested that if Germany were to get the slice of Russia she wishes, peace could be obtained, the general feeling was that such a peace would only lead to trouble later. Protection against future wars is one of the main things the allies want, however, in any peace agreement now reached.

Cut Off From Trade

Some authorities say that with England's fleet intact and guarding ports all over the world, Britain will shut Germany off from future world trade, while with Germany's militarism existent, she will constantly be a menace to the peace of Europe. Until these two nations are willing to make concessions in these respects, peace will be difficult, the experts say, as dollars and cents are at the basis of every war ever fought.

In some quarters here there was an inclination to believe that the first outbursts of the German press against Lloyd George's speech were government inspired and that later Germany will maneuver into some sort of peace negotiations.

Prove German Dishonesty

Meanwhile, Germany's utter dishonesty, even with her own people, was clearly proven today by secret censorship regulations published by the State Department, showing a complete press control. Liberal speeches were suppressed, news of suspicious fires or disasters withheld; comment on foreign news of extreme political significance was colored to suit German government purposes; efforts were made to cheer the flagging spirits of the wearied Austrians.

One secret circular to the press held that there was a certain amount of "bluff" about American war preparations, but added, "the fact must not be overlooked that the United States, with the support of its capacity for material and industrial management, is arming itself for war with great energy and tenacity."

Germany's food shortage was reflected in one memorandum, saying advertisements in which dog flesh is offered for sale are not allowed. Their acceptance is forbidden.

News of strikes was guarded, while reference to a resolution adopted by the Leipzig unions was suppressed.

NEWSPAPERS REJECT PEACE TALK

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 8.—German newspapers, in further editorial comment received here today, find nothing acceptable to the central powers in the speech of Lloyd George delivered Saturday.

"We are unable to discover a word in the long statement, which we must admit is temperate and moderate, justifying an affirmative reply," the Tageblatt declares.

The Frankfurter Zeitung characterizes the address as "a new war speech" while the Morgenpost asserts:

"The terms are such as only a victor dare offer the vanquished. We must demonstrate we are the victors."

NEW PEACE TALK WITH RUSSIA

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 8.—Foreign Minister Trotsky has arrived at Brest Litovsk and peace negotiations are to be resumed this afternoon, according to Berlin dispatches today.

LLOYD GEORGE'S SPEECH WIDENS GULF

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Instead of bridging the gulf between the west and revolutionary Russia, declared M. Farman, a well known Russian journalist, in today's Chronicle. "He deplores lack of consultation

King Leopold Admonishes To Beat America

Bavarian King Declares That Terms of Their Enemy Not to Be Considered

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 8.—"We must fight until the enemy accepts our conditions," declared King Leopold of Bavaria in a speech delivered on the occasion of a celebration of his birthday, dispatches received here today asserted.

"May we beat our latest enemy, the Americans," the king asserted as he called for new efforts in the war.

"The terms of our enemy are exorbitant," he continued. "We will not give up an inch of German ground and must try and safeguard our frontiers."

with the allies," the writer continues. "So does Russia—but her conscience is clear. She fought literally to the bitter end; she piled up mountains of corpses and poured out rivers of blood. Her casualties were more than all the others put together."

"Whoever washes his hands of her must know that Russia is no longer able to fight—and is threatened with loss of her colonies if she doesn't fight in denial of the whole of the allies' principles."

CONSERVATION OF WATER, POWER INCLUDED IN U. S. PLAN

Measure to Be Introduced In Congress Provides For Commission

BY L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The administration water power and power development bill is ready for introduction in congress. It is designed to increase navigability of streams, co-ordinating water transportation with rail and produce a tremendous expansion of the country's water facilities by harnessing the country's streams.

The measure embodies the ideas of the President, Secretary of War Baker, Secretary of Agriculture Houston, Secretary of the Interior Lane and other leading conservationists in congress.

Not only is it designed to increase transportation and power facilities but it also is expected to settle a ten year fight over who shall control the country's streams. Conservationists in congress have been battling desperately to keep the water power out of the hands of the power trust. The proposed bill, Representative Ferris, of Oklahoma, said today, would preserve the public rights forever, at the same time giving the public the fullest benefits from their development.

Creates Commission

The bill creates a commission, composed of the Secretary of War, Secretary of Agriculture and Secretary of the Interior, to have charge of developing the country's water power. The President is authorized to appoint an executive officer for the commission, through whom its policies shall be carried out. He is to serve for five years at $10,000 a year.

He is given power to issue licenses for construction of dams, reservoirs, power houses, transmission lines or any other projects which will aid in power development or improve navigation. Licensees are to be for fifty years. Licensees must submit all plans for improvement to the commission, which may alter them if it sees fit.

Annual Fee Charged

Licensees must pay an annual fee or rental to the government, to be fixed by the commission, but in the case of water development to be not less than ten cents a year for each horsepower developed. This charge is not to be imposed on states or cities wishing to build munition, power and light plants.

The federal government is to be given free power to operate locks. If the government wants any power plant for the manufacture of explosives or fixation of nitrogen to use in explosives manufacture, the bill empowers the commission to commandeer such plants.

Rates Subject to Commission. Rates to be charged for power are subject to regulation and reduction by the commission, to which they must be submitted.

At the end of the fifty year license period, the government has the privilege of taking over the dam, reservoir or power plant by paying actual cost plus "severance damages." If any, severance damages include loss to the concern through the separation of a power plant for instance from other units of its property. Federal courts are to determine the disputed cases.

But if the government does not wish to purchase at the end of the license period, the license may be renewed.

One hundred thousand dollars is appropriated for expenses of the commission.

CAMP FREMONT, MENLO PARK, Cal., Jan. 8.—Discharge of John Pilz and John Vincent from the city of Palo Alto is demanded by the city council. The grounds that they are I. W. W.'s was asked today by Lieut. Col. B. H. Pope, provost marshal at Camp Fremont, in a letter to the Palo Alto trustees. He added that there are other I. W. ## "ASSURE NATIONS OF JUSTICE, FAIR DEAL" ADVISES U. S. CHIEF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—America's war aims, "the program of the world's peace, the only possible program," was addressed to the world today as a speech before a joint session of congress by President Woodrow Wilson.

The decision of the President to follow Lloyd George in announcing peace terms to the world took Washington by surprise.

The President played his usual 18 holes of golf this morning.

Immediately on returning from the links he called upon Secretary Tamm to make the single announcement that he wanted to address congress "on our international relations."

Shortly before 12:30 the President arrived at the capitol and for the second time within a week was escorted to the house rostrum. This time, however, an air of tense expectancy tingled in the chamber as the members took their seats.

The address was transmitted by cable to every civilized country in the world.

The terms are specific and unquestionable. They were that "Every peace loving nation which, like our own, wishes to live its own life, to determine its own institutions, be assured of justice and fair dealing by other people of the world as against a program of force and selfish aggression." All the people of the world are partners in this interest, the President said, and unless justice is to be done to others it will not be done to us. America, he said, will continue in the struggle until this is achieved.

"The compelling voice of the Russian people asking a definition of America's principles and purposes" prompted the President to speak today, he stated. His speech was directed to Russia largely.

These are the terms outlined and each met with prolonged applause from the legislators as it was presented:

1. Open covenants, openly arrived at, with no ensuing secret treaties.
2. Freedom of the sea in peace and war except as closed by international action for the enforcement of international covenants.
3. Trade equality among the nations consenting to peace.
4. Reduction of armaments.
5. Impartial adjustment of colonial claims, regarding the voice of the inhabitants.
6. Evacuation of all Russian territory and assurances of unhampered opportunity for political and economical developments.
7. Evacuation and restoration of Belgium.
8. Evacuation of French territory righting the wrong done to France by Germany in 1871.
9. Readjustment of the Italian frontier along the lines of nationality.
10. Autonomous development of Austria-Hungary.
11. Evacuation and restoration of Rumania, Serbia and Montenegro, with access to the sea for Serbia. Relations of several of the Balkan states to be determined by friendly counsel.
12. Sovereignty of Turkish portions of the Ottoman empire with autonomy for other nationalities, under Turkish rule, and permanent freedom of the Dardanelles.
13. Independence of Poland, with access to the sea.
14. A league of nations to enforce specific covenants.

It is considered significant that the President did not include in his demands the elimination of Hohenzollernism.

given free power to operate locks. If the government wants any power plant for the manufacture of explosives or fixation of nitrogen to use in explosives manufacture, the bill empowers the commission to commandeer such plants.

Rates Subject to Commission

Rates to be charged for power are subject to regulation and reduction by the commission, to which they must be submitted.

At the end of the fifty year license period, the government has the privilege of taking over the dam, reservoir or power plant by paying actual cost plus "severance damages." ### MID WEST DIGS OUT FROM SNOW BLANKET TODAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—The Middle West was digging itself out today.

Railroads were gradually working back to normal schedules, interurban and street car lines were beginning to operate and business was resuming its usual trend, following the heaviest snowstorm in the history of this section.

There was still a serious fuel and milk shortage in many sections, owing to the difficulty of local deliveries, but the situation was being relieved through the volunteer labor of thousands of citizens, armed with shovels. The temperature had dropped several degrees and was two above zero in Chicago early today. The weather bureau promised more snow, on top of the foot and a half fall of the last two days, but nothing so serious as the recent blizzard was anticipated.

City officials estimated that the blizzard cost Chicago alone about $2,615,000, including loss of business to merchants and transportation companies.

Snow shovellers' wages reached the high mark of 50 cents an hour today, with the railroads paying the top figure.

Milk sold as high as 25 cents a quart and even at that price was unobtainable in the outlying districts.

Twelve ski jumpers, marooned at Gary, Ill., where they were practicing for the championships late this month, slid the thirty-five miles to Chicago on runners.

McAdoo Will Cut Expense, Save Millions On Railroads

Secretary Issues Numerous Orders to Eliminate Waste In Departments

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Director General McAdoo plans on saving $400,000 annually in federal operation of the railroads.

Sweeping economies will be inaugurated immediately after passage of the railroad bill now being considered by congressional committees. These economies are expected to net more than sufficient money to pay the increases to be granted railroad workers.

Aside from the saving—automatic in centralizing authority and unifying all the systems into a single national line—hundreds of thousands of dollars will be saved in the following moves contemplated:

Cut in big salaries and elimination of unnecessary executives.

Elimination of elaborate structure of competitive agencies under private management—passenger and freight solicitors, advertising, etc.

Conservation of coal by curtailing unnecessary traffic.

Must Unload Promptly

Tremendous savings—and much added income—are expected through prompt unloading of cars, demanded by McAdoo and to be drastically enforced if necessary, and through elimination of much back-hauling, switching, etc.

Extortionate charges forced upon private railroads by privately owned switching roads at terminals will be smashed by McAdoo.

Since these roads for the most part merely inter-switch within terminals and operate between manufacturing plants in the town, they are not within the meaning of "common carrier," the interstate commerce commission holds, and, therefore, won't get the three year guarantee promised other roads.

In creation of a common buying agency for all the roads operating under him, McAdoo will effect another saving in purchasing materials. Through the government's power to fix prices, further savings can be enforced.

MANY THOUSAND GERMANS GOING TO BLESS DAY U. S. WINS

Food Administrator Ireland Announces Porkless Day Saturday Each Week

Driving home the necessity of food conservation, announcing that on Saturday of this week that Santa Ana would enter into the weekly observance of porkless Saturday, William Francis Ireland of Los Angeles, food administrator for Southern California last night at the Tabernacle before a good sized audience discussed some of the phases of the great war.

He made himself plain upon the question of closing hours for food dealers. He declared that the food administration is not demanding that closing hours be established, but it is advising that they be established, and he said that the merchant who will agree to closing hours and then not keep them is to be regarded as un-patriotic.

One of the points of his address in which the speaker put the most vehemence was his declaration that the United States is not at war with the German people, but with the German system of Government, and he recited instances in his own experience to prove that many thousands of Germans here and in Germany will hail the day when the American flag is taken down the streets of Berlin.

Ireland was introduced last night by G. A. Edgar, chairman of the Commercial War Committee.

The People Back of It

"Our system of government," said Ireland, "means that every individual has a part in it. The authorities at Washington are there by our permission and request to conduct this war. This country is at war because it was utterly impossible to keep out of war and remain true to our principles. President Wilson's heart throbbed with the desire for peace, but he shouldered the responsibilities that came to him.

"Germany has been preparing for forty years for war. In trying to pass through Belgium, Germany met a liberty-loving people, and Belgium held Germany back until France was ready. France bore the brunt until England got in, and now the brunt of the fight is up to this nation.

"Germany is not whipped by a long run yet. The authorities at Washington are preparing for a war of from one to five years.

"It was when we became convinced of Germany's ultimate designs upon the United States, when we knew beyond question that her spy system was plotting our ruin that we entered the war.

"When these things were thoroughly understood there was but one thing for this country to do, and that was

WHAT PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE FOR NERVES

The Use of Organic Phosphorus

Something over sixty years ago Pelouze, a French scientist, discovered a form of organic phosphorus which, when taken into the human system, was quickly converted into nerve tissue. Nearly half a century later Robson, a distinguished French physician, began a scientific investigation of the use of this organic phosphorus and its effect upon the human system, with results that amazed the scientific and medical world, and today it is an admitted fact that in the treatment of those ailments, directly or indirectly due to depleted nervous vitality, such as neurasthenia, nervous weakness, premature old age, insomnia, lack of energy, fatigue, nervous debility, thinness, etc., it is unequalled. Today physicians and hospitals everywhere recognize its merits by its use in ever increasing quantities. It is therefore a matter of more than ordinary interest to all such sufferers to learn that this organic nerve building phosphorus is now obtainable of the Rowley Drug Co. and good druggists everywhere in the form of 5-grain tablets of pure bitroposphate, at a cost so low as to be within the reach of everyone. One of these tablets should be taken with each meal, and the results in many instances are little short of marvelous. Dull eyes become bright, sleep is restored to the sleepless, thin people put on flesh, and the whole system becomes charged with that strength, vitality and energy which makes life so truly worth while.—Adv.

"If you can't make a living in business by keeping decent hours, you had better get out of business. "Your merchants here voted on three propositions, and they accepted closing hours of 6 p. m. and 8 p. m., the latter for Saturdays and days before holidays. "You ought not change those hours unless you all get together and vote to change them.

Gather Strength

"When a mother is upon a sick bed, the relatives gather around, and there is brought to bear every force to return her to health. Thus, today, the mother of Liberty needs the help of every adherent.

"Is it possible that there is in this land a man so small that he can't understand his duty? Does it take a death in his own home to bring to him the truth of his own relation to this great struggle? After my forefathers have fought for individual rights, I'd be a cur if I did not stand true now.

"We are going to win this war because American citizens are back of this movement. We have got to stand together. Plots to inject sugar with disease germs have been made right here in Southern California. We have got to stand shoulder to shoulder for our own protection as well as for the protection of our soldiers at the front.

Brands as a Lie

"I have been handed here a question asking why save meat, then let it rot on the docks of New York. That is a deliberate, malicious lie.

"When we come out of Europe let it be with a republic of Germany, not a monarchy, wherein one man can send the whole world into war.

"I'd like to take you to Los Angeles and let you talk with Germans I know here. I'd like to have you talk with one German who these three years past has tried to get his wife and daughter out of Germany. He has received a letter from his daughter saying that she and her mother are not allowed to leave Germany because each by official order must give birth to a German citizen. When a nation wipes aside all morals, every decent minded individual ought to stand up like a man. Citizens of mine in Pasadena have had some such experience, and their feeling is such that were they today in Berlin, native Germans as they are, should the kaiser pass by they would kill him for the official outrages brought by his system upon their relatives.

"There are many thousands of Germans in this country and in Germany who will bless the day when the American flag appears in Berlin. We are not at war with the German people, but with the German system of government, which is run by and for the kaiser, a system that blot's out the freedom of individuals."

A number of questions were put to

to play the part of a man. Those who have been crying peace should now be with William Jennings Bryan, who declares that there is now but one way to peace and that is through victory in this war.

"We have got to supply man power. We may have to put in from five million to ten million men. We are conquering the submarine menace.

When this war is over and its secrets are told, Edison will be declared the greatest man who ever lived. The Germans forgot when she allowed this country to be brought into war that the country that invented the submarine could also invent its defeat.

Hard to Realize

"It is hard for us to realize that we are at war. It is hard for us to realize that in our own country people are on the verge of freezing for want of fuel. In Europe it is far worse. Men at the front are dying of exposure. Tuberculosis is sweeping France because people lack nutrition.

Any person not willing to stand up with America in this country, now is the time to go. There must be no question mark. This is no time to grumble and growl, but stand up on your feet like a man if you are one. Nothing else but this war is important now. If we have private grumbles, wait until after the war is over before we waste any energy upon them.

Must Feed Europe

The allied nations are in a bad fix for food. So is Germany. The biggest note of encouragement is that the United States can supply food for her army and for the allies.

The Government has declared that we shall eat no meat on Tuesdays and no white wheat bread on Wednesdays. If the people do not better observe meatless days the Government will mighty soon take over the meat packing plants, just as it has taken over the railroads.

"On Tuesdays you can eat rabbits, poultry and fish. Merchants are asked not to sell meats on Monday afternoon for Tuesday's consumption. Any merchant who will not live up to the food regulations is not fit to be traded with, and I advise you to patronize some other merchant.

"There are plenty of good loyal American citizens who are willing to fight right here, and I list each of you in helping to see that the Government's orders are carried out.

"I have here the actual figures of the saving made in Los Angeles in meat and wheat bread during December. These figures are gathered from the dealers, and are absolutely reliable. They run into the hundreds of thousands of pounds.

Porkless Day

"Wheatless day serves not only to save wheat but it serves to jog our minds that we are at war.

"We are now starting porkless day. Saturday is to be porkless day all over this country. Let Santa Ana start porkless day on Saturday of this week and aid in intensifying the saving of pork to be sent across the Atlantic.

"As to the merchants who do not live up to the closing hours. The Government can prosecute any merchant who does not observe the wheatless, meatless and porkless days. I did not fix your closing hours. I did not believe it advisable to conserve man power. This nation has got to save its strength. A man cannot keep strong and work too long hours. There is not a jury in the country that won't convict a man for violating the wheatless, meatless and porkless order.

"I said to the food dealers in Los Angeles that it was my opinion that the merchant who won't keep his word on the closing hour, his word is no good with the Government or with his customers. I did say that a lot of merchants act like a lot of school kids. If you are real sensible men, you merchants will get down to some rule and order. If every grocer closes at the same hour, who is hurt? No one.

"If you can't make a living in business by keeping decent hours, you had better get out of business. "Your merchants here voted on three propositions, and they accepted closing hours of 6 p. m. and 8 p. m., the latter for Saturdays and days before holidays.

"You ought not change those hours unless you all get together and vote to change them.

Gather Strength

"When a mother is upon a sick bed, the relatives gather around, and there is brought to bear every force to return her to health. Thus, today, the mother of Liberty needs the help of every adherent.

"Is it possible that there is in this land a man so small that he can't understand his duty? Does it take a death in his own home to bring to him the truth of his own relation to this great struggle? After my forefathers have fought for individual rights, I'd be a cur if I did not stand true now.

"We are going to win this war because American citizens are back of this movement. We have got to stand together. Plots to inject sugar with disease germs have been made right here in Southern California. We have got to stand shoulder to shoulder for our own protection as well as for the protection of our soldiers at the front.

Brands as a Lie

"I have been handed here a question asking why save meat, then let it rot on the docks of New York. That is a deliberate, malicious lie.

"When we come out of Europe let it be with a republic of Germany, not a monarchy, wherein one man can send the whole world into war.

"I'd like to take you to Los Angeles and let you talk with Germans I know here. I'd like to have you talk with one German who these three years past has tried to get his wife and daughter out of Germany. He has received a letter from his daughter saying that she and her mother are not allowed to leave Germany because each by official order must give birth to a German citizen. When a nation wipes aside all morals, every decent minded individual ought to stand up like a man. Citizens of mine in Pasadena have had some such experience, and their feeling is such that were they today in Berlin, native Germans as they are, should the kaiser pass by they would kill him for the official outrages brought by his system upon their relatives.

"There are many thousands of Germans in this country and in Germany who will bless the day when the American flag appears in Berlin. We are not at war with the German people, but with the German system of government, which is run by and for the kaiser, a system that blot's out the freedom of individuals."

A number of questions were put to

A good way to economize in good cooking!

"Yes, butter is higher."

Your grocer is sorry, but he has to charge you more.

If he is a well-informed grocer, like many grocers we know, he may say to you: "Why don't you try Cottolene? Some of my most particular customers are using it in all their cooking in place of butter—and in place of other shortenings, too."

In baking with wholesome Cottolene, use one-third less than you would use of butter or other shortenings.

Cottolene sets the highest possible standard for purity and richness.

And the richer a shortening is, the more economical it is. You use less.

Many good cooks give it as their belief that, after all, cake is the real test of a shortening.

Cottolene meets this test by making perfectly delicious cake.

Try pure Cottolene in one of your "old-stand-by" recipes—for cake, biscuits or pie, for example. Be sure to use one-third less of Cottolene than you usually do of butter or other shortening.

Cottolene is sold by grocers in tins of convenient sizes.

Recipe for COCOANUT LAYER CAKE

He said that so far as beer was concerned, Congress is made up of representatives of the American people and the American people have not so far sent enough men to Congress to abolish the making of beer. The question is up to the voting public. In regard to tobacco, he said he was being asked for his personal opinion, and he preferred to discuss Government orders and principles.

STATE DELEGATIONS BEGIN COMPETITION AT BIG TABERNACLE

Large delegations of Kansans and Iowans are expected to attend the tabernacle meeting Wednesday night. Former residents of these two states are numerous in this vicinity and a good-natured rivalry is on between representatives of the two states for the honor of having the largest delegation at the meeting.

These state delegations are the first of a number of such enthusiastic gatherings to be held this week in which the different states of the Union will have a chance to show how many representatives they have in this city. There is much speculation as to which state will turn out the largest delegation. Some claim that Iowa, which its natives will lead, while others declare that Kansas will walk off with the victor's wreath.

BUILD BROADWAY NORTH TO OIL FIELDS, PLAN SUGGESTED

M. & M. Association Elects Directors For Year at Annual Banquet

Directors elected by the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association for the ensuing year: H. H. Dale, of Dale & Company. W. H. Spurgeon, Jr., of Horton Spurgeon Furniture Company. R. R. Miles, of the Miles Shoe Company. J. W. Taylor, of Taylor's Cash Store. H. J. Lowe, of the W. A. Huff Company. George M. Kryhl, of C. P. Kryhl & Son. Verne W. Whitson, of the Wood Lumber Company.

The first three men were re-elected and the remaining four were newly elected.

A suggestion that the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Santa Ana consider the advisability of working for the opening of Broadway clear through to the rich citrus and oil district of the northern end of the county, was the outstanding feature at the annual banquet of the association held last night at Odd Fellows' Hall. The suggestion was made by H. J. Forgy, attorney for the association, in an address in which he emphasized the need of co-operation in keeping business up to normal conditions in war times.

"There is one point that I have never heard mentioned in a gathering of this nature," said Forgy in the course of his remarks, "and I am going to speak of it tonight. I present it merely for your consideration, and after you have thought it over I believe you will think it a golden opportunity. Get a map of Orange county. Then take a ruler and lay it on North Broadway. Where does it go. It leads directly to the rich citrus and oil sections of the county. It comes out at Olinda. What do Santa Ana merchants get of the business of that section? Only what comes after the people have passed through Fullerton and Anaheim. Let the merchants of Santa Ana build a road direct to that section. Either continue Broadway straight north, or build Main street straight, and a large part of the trade from the northern part of the county will come here. I tell you, the merchants of Santa Ana can afford to build that road and pave it for the business it will bring here."

Banquet Huge Success
Forgy's address followed the annual banquet of the Association and came during the time when the nominating committee was making its selection for directors for the association for the coming year. The report of this committee which was adopted as presented results in the selection of the men named above as the directors for 1918.

The banquet was one of the most pleasant of get-together occasions. Served in the best of order with the Dragon catering, the menu abundantly cared for the needs of the men present without violating any of Hoover's admonitions, because there was no waste. The menu consisted of the following:

Bouillon	Fruit cocktail	Salad
Southern style ham
Mashed potatoes	Sweet potatoes
Hot biscuit	Peas
Dragon plum pudding
Olives	Celery	Nuts
Coffee	Cigars

Report Shows Co-operation
Following the banquet President A. G. Flagg called the meeting to order and the report of Secretary Metzgar and the financial report of the treasurer were read. The secretary's report showed the best of co-operation during the year, and the spirit of unity which has prevailed among the members. Metzgar emphasized the value of the association to the members in keeping out the fake advertiser, and the parasite who plays upon the legitimate business men of the community.

In the course of his address, H. J. Forgy took occasion to mention the value that this one thing was to the merchants. "The men should work together to keep out the parasite who comes here with his fake advertising scheme. That one thing alone is Endorsed the thrift stamp and worth ten times the cost of this association to the members," said Forgy. "We want to keep business 'the same as usual.'" Forgy continued. "We do not want people to get so tight-fisted in retrenchment that business will suffer. Let the people of Santa Ana go along in an even way, keeping cool under all conditions."

Thrift Stamp Campaign
F. L. Andrews, local chairman of the Thrift Stamp campaign was given a few minutes to present the work he has in charge. He stated that it was the desire of the government that each advertiser give a proportion of his space to advertising the thrift stamps. He declared that with the influence of their reputations and prestige in the community, the merchant had an opportunity to do a great patriotic service. Mr. Andrews announced that J. E. Liebig would have charge of this phase of the work, and that he would call upon the merchants within a few days and present to them the details of the government's request.

In the informal session which followed, Charles Robinson of the Mission Woolen Mills, a new member in the Association, was called on for a few words regarding the work of that plant. Robinson explained that the Woolen Mills plant was at the present time employing seventy people, that it had a payroll of about $1200 a week, and that it had been instrumental in bringing between fifteen and twenty families into Santa Ana. Robinson stated that the factory was working entirely at the present time on war orders, blankets and overcoats.

Following adjournment, the men present accepted the invitation of Manager Schlesinger of the West End Theater to attend his show.

Secretary Metzgar's report follows:
The following report, covering the activities of your Association for the past year, is compiled from the minutes and an effort has been made toward a condensed review of the services of the Directors and Committees eliminating reference to any meetings that were without immediate accomplishment.

On January 2 the Directors were elected for the term of one year. Twenty-one meetings were held during their term of office and many matters of importance to the business interests were considered. An increased co-operative spirit made the work of your Board and Secretary pleasant and without friction.

At High Mark
The financial status of the Association remains in A-1 condition and is usual the collection of dues is 100 per cent in, all members having paid their dues to January 1, 1918. The Association is in good financial condition, the revenues from memberships being sufficient to carry on the work upon lines of strict economy and to provide a small surplus from which unexpected demands may be met. ## UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. and Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: "Pape's Diapiesin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear."

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly. You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder, due to acid fermentation.—Adv.

full and detailed financial report is hereto attached.

Work With Salvation Army
The working agreement with Capt. Carroll, of the Salvation Army, is still in force and the members of the Association are relieved from any solicitations for donations to various charitable causes. The regular contribution of $10.00 per month was increased to $25.00 for four months during the winter and spring when calls for aid were received.

Credit System Plans
At a banquet and business meeting of the members, held March 12, A. J. Pickarts and E. M. Hitchcock, President and Manager of the Retail Merchants' Credit Association of Los Angeles, spoke on credits and a committee consisting of H. P. Rankin, chairman; J. C. Horton, J. G. Morrow, J. S. Hill and A. N. Zerman, were appointed to investigate the feasibility of establishing a credit bureau. The committee made an earnest effort toward the establishment of an efficient credit organization and on April 25 submitted the following self-explanatory report of the results of their activities:

"Merchants' & Manufacturers' Ass'n, J. C. Metzgar, Secretary. Gentlemen:—Your committee, consisting of J. S. Hill, A. N. Zerman, J. G. Morrow, J. C. Horton and H. P. Rankin, chairman, appointed to proceed to establish a Credit System in Santa Ana, begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee held two meetings and authorized a canvass by letter of the business men of Santa Ana, stating the approximate terms, equipment needed and service to be rendered. This canvass resulted in the following replies:

11 voted to become charter members, provided 40 could be secured.

5 replied that they would probably join, but desired more information.

14 replied that they were interested, but did not desire to join until the system was successfully established.

24 replied that they had no use for the system, and would not join.

Only 54 replies were received out of about 250 letters sent out. Upon such a showing as this, the Committee does not feel warranted in proceeding to establish the proposed system, as the burden of expense should not be borne by the Association for the benefit of the few members who signified a desire to join.

A few days ago, however, an offer was made by John A. Henderson of Santa Ana, to undertake to establish the system upon his own expense and responsibility, provided he could secure the backing of the committee and the Board of Directors of the M. & M. Association. The committee feels that the matter is of too vital importance to be dropped, and it therefore recommends to the Board of Directors that it accept the offer of Mr. Henderson and call a meeting of all interested parties, at which time Mr. Henderson may publicly state his proposition.

With the rendering of this report and recommendation, the committee begs to be dismissed."

I will add that Mr. Henderson was not successful in interesting a sufficient number of firms to launch the enterprise and on June 4 Chairman Rankin reported that after making every possible effort, it had been found impossible to secure sufficient financial support and the matter had been dropped.

Walloped in Baseball
A challenge to play a baseball game with the High School faculty, for the benefit of Company L fund was accepted. Wm. H. Spurgeon, Jr., was appointed captain of the Merchants' & Manufacturers' Association team. The results, considerably less than $1,000,000, was received and the victory went to the opponents, Sapt. Spurgeon's team having been overtrained.

Endorse Worthy Measure
The Madden Reclassification Bill H. R. 1654, providing for increased pay for postoffice employees, was endorsed.

An endorsement was given the Buttrick Publishing in its stand to eliminate mail-order houses from advertising in their fashion and pattern magazines.

The city playground movement was encouraged by an appropriation of $50.00. A resolution was adopted recommending that the business men of Santa Ana curtail their delivery system to one delivery to one house per day, and eliminate all superfluous and useless deliveries as an economic war measure. Endorsed the immediate construction of a bridge on the Hanau street crossing of the Santiago creek.

recommended that business houses

TURNING BARS INTO SODA FOUNTAINS

Two years ago foresight caused the proprietor of one of the largest and most remunerative barrooms in New Orleans to install a soda fountain in the arcade leading to the bar. At the same time he opened a restaurant not connected with the saloon. And now with both these experiments already developed into paying business this same saloon proprietor has announced that the bar will give place to a still larger soda fountain within sixty days. Oh yes, of course he's enlarging the restaurant, too.

Why? He gives the answer himself quite frankly. "This country will be dry in five years, and by that time I will not notice the loss of the saloon."

Other saloons in the same city are making plans to do likewise. Soda fountains, restaurants, a cafeteria and an oyster counter are among the enterprises being started as the prohibition amendment brings the prospects of a dry country nearer.

Brewers and distillers in dry states have long since found profitable employment for their plants in lines of production too numerous to mention. Saloon keepers aren't going to find it difficult to be cheerful about closing their barrooms because, after all, there are other money-making occupations in which they may safely engage.

TRUSTING UNCLE SAM

Is the nation down-hearted because the government has taken over the railroads? Are people alarmed because a dreadful "socialistic" move has been made? Do we feel that the country is going to the demdition, howlows, and that we may just as well go and drown ourselves before it all over?

Not at all! Financial writers in the last few days have been chuck-full of enthusiasm, after a long period of gloom and depression. The President's proclamation of government control, they say, has lifted a great burden from the Wall Street mind. "It is the most far-reaching sign so far given that the government has an intimate understanding of the business problems of the time," etc.

The effect on the stock market was immediate and widespread. Railroad securities at once shot up many points, and have steadily continued rising. Along with them rose industrial stocks the income from which is more or less dependent on railroad prosperity. And then followed, in a grand upward sweep, all the standard securities on the list.

It's a "bull market" again. And it isn't any ordinary "bull campaign," engineered by the professional gamblers. It's the natural result of honest, enthusiastic buying by great numbers of small investors who represent the average public.

Financiers, speculators and common people, are all agreed about it. Conservatives and radicals find themselves on common ground.

To any observer of the current of events flowing through the past ten years this agreement of hitherto warring opinions is curious. The soap-box orators who urged government ownership of all means of production, transportation and distribution of wealth on every street corner and in every available dingy hall for many years were most vociferous in their denunciation of Wall Street and Big Business. Wall Street and Big Business in their turn were most contemptuous of the strata of society represented by the soap-boxers. And little if anything in the way of improvement of conditions of any sort was accomplished.

Now Big Business itself is the first to welcome the new conditions, nor are the soap-boxers distrustful of its representatives. And great things on every side are being done, never more to be undone.

The secret is this: In the old days class arrayed itself against class, and energy was vainly wasted in the competition. Now the days of co-operation are at hand, and the new methods succeed because they are backed by a united people. There is no longer Wall Street here and the soap-boxers there. There is only genial, unexpectantly competent, altogether American Uncle Sam moving forward on the highroad of democracy. And all the people trust him.

Which is to say, all the people trust their own collective good will, ability and common sense. They know that, once they get their minds on the job, they—through their government—are perfectly capable of meeting and mastering any emergency that arises.

The railroad venture is simply another illustration of a public trait noted by Kipling. In the midst of confusion and crisis, "while reproof around us rings," we suddenly "turn a keen untroubled face more to the instant need of things." And then everything clears up.

DOUBT INFLUENCE OF UNION OF GERMAN LIBERAL PARTIES

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Whether Germany's liberals now for the first time reported united in opposition to the German government will do any more than criticize the autocracy's scheme of annexations concealed in the Russo-German peace negotiations was the subject of widest speculation here today.

Proceedings at the main reichstag committee meetings of the past few days as passed by German senators, show that for once Majority Socialist Leader Scheidemann and Minority Socialist Leader Hasse are together in denouncing the government. Maximilian Harden, too, is fulminating thunderous criticisms for the Prest Litovsk "concessions" announced by Germany.

Attempt at Union Possible

If the Scheidemann group of near-liberals joins completely with the radicals, the government's majority in the reichstag will be seriously menaced. Dispatches from Berlin by way of Holland today indicated that a movement to this end, directed against Foreign Minister Kuehman, was definitely under way.

Observers here today held that the bolshevik government had accomplished at least one remarkable thing in the separate peace endeavors, and that was it had apparently inspired the German liberals to a more fearless policy of opposition to the government.

COUPLES ARE MARRIED BEFORE 6 A. M. TODAY

This morning at 5:30, which is a few minutes after the time Justice Cox generally gets up to go to work in his garden and which is quite a number of minutes earlier than Deputy County Clerk Backs usually rises for breakfast, two Los Angeles couples arrived here to be married. Their machine was broken down at La Habra, and they came on in a hired auto. Backs was gotten out of bed and Cox out of the garden, and Miss Beth Crall, a cashier, 17, whose mother was with her, became the wife of Charles M. Larkin, 24, an actor, and Miss A. Juanita Ausburn, 21, became the wife of Chester Ryckman, 23, an actor. The two men live at the Pathe apartments, Los Angeles.

Red Cross Activities

A former resident of Andover, Mass., now living in St. Louis, Mo., writes that a new verse has been added to "America," and that it is being sung at some of the churches every Sunday.

Would it not be well to learn the verse and sing it in Santa Ana?

God bless our splendid men,
Send them safe home again,
God bless our men,
Keep them victorious,
Patient and chivalrous,
They are so dear to us;
God save our men.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Flora Pyle, fifteen dozen oilcloth covered ambulance pillows have been shipped direct to New York. Five bolts of oilcloth were donated by the Veteran Rebekahs and the Woman's Club of Santa Ana.

Every Wednesday Mrs. Alice Harris will be at headquarters as sewing instructor. We cannot furnish model garments to everyone to take home, so please plan to come to headquarters and make one garment under our instruction. Then we will be glad to have you do the sewing at home if you prefer. We are urged to send a continuous supply of garments, but we cannot do this unless you give us your time for sewing.

Please return all remnants of wool, however small. We can make use of them.

The school boys have been very kind in giving us assistance at headquarters. Gallas Coleman has been helping us with cleaning and running errands.

The boys of the Intermediate school are going to make packing boxes under the supervision of Mr. Davis.

The following sincere letter, written from the "front" by Paul Mennier to a friend of Mrs. W. E. Otis, shows us the need and the appreciation of the boys already in the service.

On the Front, Nov. 9, '17.
Will you excuse my forwardness and allow me to send this letter to you, asking for warm clothing? Having been designated for Salonique, and on the point of leaving shortly, I would be happy if my request was favorably considered by you and for it you would be much esteemed.

Having been on the front since the beginning of the war, my modest clothing in my roll is almost reduced to nothing, having been in the rain nearly all the time, and in the mud. The least little thing makes it in rags. Also, chere madame, I do not know but perhaps I will be too troublesome in asking you for warm underclothes, socks, sweater and for an electric pocket light if possible, for it would be very useful during the winter when the nights are dark, when we are out on our service of "brancardiers" (stretcher bearers).

Those who did not receive Red Cross window posters during the membership drive can get them at the office of Col. S. H. Finley. Some of the solicitors did not have enough to supply all those whose memberships were taken.

The first meeting of the Tustin surgical dressings class will be held at the home of Mrs. Beisel on Mitchell avenue on Wednesday at 2 o'clock sharp. Each worker please bring a coverall apron.

SOON REGISTER GERMAN HERE. IS ORDERED

Chiefs of Police and Postmasters Are to Take Affidavits Demanded

Every unnaturalized German over 14 years of age must be registered with postmasters during the week of February 4, excepting in cities of over 5000, when the chief of police must do to registering.

The order, coming from President Wilson, affects every unnaturalized German in the United States and a number in this county will be affected by the order. The registration for the draft last June showed very few native born Germans of draft age in this county. This registration, however, is for all German citizens.

The order requires every German citizen to make out four affidavits, setting forth his age, residence, business, friends, habits and many other important subjects.

All of these affidavits must be signed and each registrant must provide four photographs of himself. These photographs must not be larger than three inches square, printed on thin paper with a white background.

One photo must be attached to each affidavit and one will be attached to the identification card to be given the German.

After once being registered the German may not move from his place of residence without the approval of the postmaster, who will record the new residence.

The finger prints of each man will be taken by the police and kept as a part of the identification. In cities of more than 5000 the chief of police will be required to register the Germans.

COUNTY COMMITTEE
OF Y. M. C. A. MADE
PLANS LAST NIGHT

The monthly meeting of the county Y. M. C. A. committee held last night at the home of Secretary Ralph G. Cole in Orange attended to a number of matters of importance to the Young Men's Christian Association in this county.

The action taken by the club presidents at their meeting last Saturday night, suggesting a county conference of club members to be held in Anaheim February 16 was ratified. The committee amplified the plans made by the boys, and it is now proposed that the nation-wide suggestion of a father and son banquet be carried out during the evening. The fathers of the club members will be invited to the banquet and will be given a place on the program. The boys' conference on this day will commence in the afternoon, and will continue through the banquet and evening session.

Plans for the meetings are being worked out by Secretary Cole in conjunction with the Anaheim clubs, who have extended the invitation to the other boys of the county.

A banquet in honor of George Sherwood Eddy, the famous mission leader of the Y. M. C. A. movement, will be given Thursday noon at the Hotel Maryland in Pasadena, and the committee last night selected J. A. Cranston, Harry W. Lewis and Secretary Cole to represent this county at the banquet. Eddy has been at the war front for the past three years, and is en route to his work in the Orient. He will undoubtedly have a wonderful message to present to the men and those who have heard him declare he can present it in a mighty forceful manner.

FUNERAL SERVICE FOR LAWRENCE PENMAN AT
ORANGE YESTERDAY

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Episcopal Church in Orange for Lawrence Penman. Rev. Herbert V. Harris, rector of the church, read the impressive Episcopal funeral service. The church was crowded with friends of the young man and of his family, who came to honor his memory on this sad occasion.

The casket was massed with beautiful flowers, gifts from relatives and friends, the most striking of which were a large floral cross from the family, and a beautiful piece from the Parent-Teacher Association and from the teachers of Orange, where Miss Minnie Penman, sister of the deceased young man is one of the popular teachers. Other floral gifts from friends and business firms were banked against the casket, which was open to members of the family after the service.

Mrs. Paul Clark sang tenderly two beautiful songs, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

The pall-bearers were brother members of the K. of P. lodge of Tustin. Interment was at Fairhaven cemetery, where short services were held.

Lawrence Penman leaves the following family to mourn his death: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Penman; three brothers, Robert Penman, Leland Penman and Newton Penman; and three sisters, Miss Minnie Penman, Miss Viola Penman and Mrs. Alfred Poulsen.

BISBY DECLINES POSITION WITH
REBUILDERSTells Brunswick Time Is Not
Ripe For Carrying Out
Plan Proposed

Today a number of Santa Anans received invitations to become members of the general committee of the Southern California Rebuilders for France, a plan advocated by the Los Angeles Examiner. Bisby's letter to L. N. Brunswick, president of the organization, follows:

"Dear Sir: Your circular letter of January 5, relative to the rebuilding of one of the ruined towns of France by a Southern California organization is before me.

"I have read it over several times and endeavored to reach the viewpoint of you and your friends, but with the picture before me of the absolute necessity of the utilization of every dollar of money and the unification of every energy of our people together with their finances to bring to our allies and soldiers on the battle fields of France relief, I feel that I can not join you.

"I do not doubt your sincerity and good intentions but I seriously question the wisdom of dividing our resources at this time. To me the one big business, the business of the world of democracy is to win this war and establish a government of democracy in every civilized country in the world. A government of the people, for the people and by the people."

"The President of the United States together with every branch of our Government is preaching the gospel of unification as illustrated in giving to the President of the United States practically unlimited power.

"The taking over of all the railroads and the appointing of a director general, thus bring all under a unit control. As this seems to be the national and international policy, why should we of Southern California at this time divide our resources?"

"Let's win this war and give the people of this world the right of a free government, then I am with you in the rebuilding of France and will be pleased to go out and hustle."

"Yours for world democracy."

CONSISTENCY IN DAILY LIFE OF BIEDERWOLF IS EXEMPLIFIED

Evangelist Possesses That "Pearl of Great Price" As His Jewel

If the old saying, "Consistency Thou Art a Jewel," still holds true even in these troublous days, then Dr. Biederwolf, the evangelist, now preaching such wonderful sermons at the tabernacle, ought to have a truly wonderful and costly collection of jewels of the

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

As you look with satisfaction at your fire policies, you realize that fire is a constant menace and feel secure in your protection from that misfortune.

But how about many other things that may happen which will cause you financial loss?

Nobody knows from what quarter misfortune may come, but everyone can protect himself from every possible danger through the sound, reliable most beautiful sort. He confessed, some days ago, to a strange, almost overpowering fancy and love for pearls. If consistency is a jewel and a pearl is a jewel the evangelist possesses a big one and a beauty in the consistency with which he carries out his pleadings with the people to establish a family altar in their individual homes and join the "National Home Altar League," a movement to set up in each Christian household a family altar where the children and elders shall join each day for family worship; for prayers for this nation and its ruler in these world war days; for the dear old flag that it may never touch the ground; for God's protection and blessings on themselves and others.

Morning Devotions
In the house on French street, where Dr. Biederwolf and his associates are stopping in this city, each morning sees the little group about the big center table in the dining room with their Bibles before them. The study is led by the evangelist and with references at hand the subject for each morning is taken up and discussed. There in the circle about the table are Heaton and Bachemeyer, the sweet singers of the tabernacle, "Ted" Evans, the young evangelist, and by the doctor's side at the head of the table, his wife, who lays to one side her household duties and takes a deep interest in the studies. Whenever he can slip in from his early morning tour with "copy" for the newspapers Mr. Yeager, the "publicity" man with the party, takes his place at the table. Last week the study of the departure of the children of Israel from Egypt in the month of "Abib" was taken up.

Carefully Investigated
The most minute investigations in the short space of time allotted to the period of their family worship are made, questions are asked and answered and historical references kept near at hand and consulted. Each one of the group in turn reads a portion of the part selected for study and at the end the evangelist offers prayer, an all-embracing prayer, a prayer for each member of the party that they may have divine protection and strength in their daily work, safety and peace and then the little group unites in individual tasks stronger, happier and better in every way from this short season of study and prayer. "The Home Altar League" is a subject very near and dear to Dr. Biederwolf's heart. It is to this movement and in support of it that a greater part of his money goes and at every occasion afforded he brings the subject before his audience and with all of his powers of persuasion tries to inculcate the pressing need for such an institution in every home throughout this broad land. Especially he dwells upon its example and effect upon the rising generation; upon the children of the household and upon the course of their future life; upon its effect on their associates through them.

At many of his meetings, he refers to the Home Altar magazine, which is the official organ of this splendid movement and tells the people they can subscribe to it with its tracings of the Bible studies and readings for each day in the year and its accounts of the work of the evangelists throughout the country.

"Faith of Our Fathers, the Home Altars of Our Old Fashioned Mothers," is the bulwark of the nation."

REV. ROADHOUSE IS TO FILL PULPIT OF REV. LLOYD DARSIE

Former Pastor of First Christian Church to Begin Service Sunday

During the time that Rev. Lloyd Darsie is absent upon Y. M. C. A. work, Rev. A. F. Roadhouse will fill his pulpit at the First Christian Church of this city.

Several years ago Rev. Roadhouse was pastor of the church here for about twenty months. Owing to his wife's health, for a time Rev. Roadhouse went to ranching. Since then he has held pastorates at San Bernardino and Pueblo, Colo. When at Pueblo another removal on account of Mrs. Roadhouse's health was found necessary. Recently the long fight for life that Mrs. Roadhouse had made ended.

Last night the trustees of the church issued a call to Rev. Roadhouse to take up the work at the First Christian Church during the absence of the pastor. The call has been accepted. Members of the church feel that the church is fortunate in being able to secure the services of Rev. Roadhouse, who, when here was always popular in the church and was recognized throughout this city as an able minister.

FLAHERTY DOES NOT APPROVE BRIDGE PLAN CHANGES

Says P. E. Engineer's Suggestions Will Not Strengthen the Structure

It's just one durned thing after another that develops to occasion delay in the city council getting to the point where it can make the first important step in the calling of an election to vote bonds for building that new bridge across the Santiago creek on North Main street.

The council has held one or two adjourned meetings in order to accelerate the bond machinery, and last night it found it necessary to again adjourn to another date to take action. It adjourned to next Friday night.

The Pacific Electric engineers suggested changes in the plans which were deemed necessary to strengthen the bridge and make it safe for use by the company. The suggested changes were submitted to Edward Flaherty, who drew the plans, and he has come back with a letter which in effect says the P. E. engineers don't know what they are talking about. He says the plans as drawn by him offer greater strength and safety than would the suggested change. He will make no change unless he is authorized to do so by resolution of the council. The alterations in the plans would add $500 or $600 to the cost of the bridge.

The board decided that it had better make a little closer investigation and for that reason passed the plans over to the adjourned meeting of Friday night, when they probably will be formally adopted and the way cleared for starting the proceedings necessary to call the election. The issue will include provisions for a bridge at Hannah street.

Linemen Threatened
That some property owner on Spurgeon street has recently threatened to bombard a force of Edison linemen if they attempted to trim a tree in front of his property, was reported by Trustee McPhee. McPhee recited that in the Edison contract the company was given permission to trim trees that interfere with its wire set, the same to be done under the supervision of a man appointed by the council, but whose services are to be paid for by the company.

McPhee moved that the street superintendent be authorized to select a competent man—a man who knows when a tree is being butchered instead of trimmed—to accompany the Edison crew to the property where the threat was made, and if the limbs are a menace to the lines, see that they are removed. If the irate property owner again becomes obdurate and threatens dire vengeance, steps will be taken to insure the safety of the workmen in the trimming process.

Change Lights to Lessen Poles
McPhee reported that by making changes in the street lights at the corner of Fifth and Bush and Fifth and Spurgeon, four Edison poles could be removed from the street, and on his recommendation the changes were authorized. The arc light at Spurgeon and Fifth is to be replaced with an incandescent lamp with center suspension, and the small incandescent lamp at Bush is to be replaced with a larger lamp.

Paint Bridge Rails White
"Santa Ana is the only city in the Southland that has a small bridge that is not painted white," declared Trustee Tubbs. He referred to the small bridge on West Fifth street recently constructed, and on his motion the street superintendent was instructed to paint the rails of the bridge white.

Curbs for Oak Street
The city council recently ordered Oak street, from First to Chestnut, improved with oil and sand. Tubbs has observed that curbing has not been completed on the street. Curbing was ordered in where it has not already been built.

To Improve East Seventeenth
The condition of the center of East Seventeenth, from Santiago to Grand, where a main sewer has recently been laid, was called to the attention of the board by Tubbs. A discussion resulted in instruction to the street superintendent to tear up and repair the street.

Pesthouse Property Re-Leased
The city has six acres of ground on West First street, commonly referred to as the pesthouse property. F. O. McClure has been renting it at $50 per year. He appeared before the board asking for a renewal of the lease, agreeing to pay an advanced price after this year. On motion of McPhee his lease was extended for another year at a rental of $50, with the proviso that next year the rent be $100 per year.

Jitney Licenses Renewed
Jitney line owners applied for a renewal of their licenses for the year, accompanied by the requisite bonds, with the Western Indemnity Company providing the bonds. The licenses were granted and the bonds referred to the president of the board for approval.

Charles E. Dixon applied for licenses covering three cars; the A. R. G. Bus Company, 3; Peacock, 2; Percy L. Lusk, 1; G. M. Foster, 2; H. L. Groover, 2; Arthur J. Kuss, 1; Crown Stage, 13.

A license was also granted Millard Foster and George Prather for the Tustin line. They recently purchased the Smith line to Tustin, and before they can legally do business it is necessary to grant them a franchise. They have filed their application, and the council set January 21 as the time for hearing on the application. In the meantime the firm will continue to do business.

Committee Inactive
A communication from Secretary Dietrich of the railroad commission advised the board that the commission had received no response to a recent letter having to do with grade crossings in the city. Tubbs moved that the committee be continued and that it be censured for its inactivity. He then announced that he and McPhee composed the committee complained against.

Fire Laddies Ask Increase
In a written request, reciting the fact that the cost of living has advanced right along, with the tendency still upward, the firemen who are on duty at the fire hall twenty-four hours every day, asked that their salaries be advanced $10 per month each. The men are Fire Chief Mont Jackson, John Lacy, A. D. Pyeat and H. C. Turner. The request was referred to a committee composed of Tubbs and Greenleaf.

Paving Contract Awarded
The Orange County Engineering & Construction Company was the only firm to submit a bid for the paving uncompleted portions of West Fourth street under Vrooman proceedings. There are seven lots in front of which paving has not been done and the firm was awarded the contract on its bid of 17 1/2 cents per square foot. The total cost of the work will be $1041.

Minor Matters
Renewal of plumbing license of E. E. Wood was granted and $500 bond referred to the president for approval.

A new bread ordinance, changing the local ordinance to conform to the regulations of the food administration, was passed.

Monthly reports of city recorder, city marshal and building inspector referred to the auditing committee.

Mrs. Effie Baker of Delhi was given permission to sell home made candy in this city.

Judge Maryatt presided in the absence of Mayor Visel, who is in New York on business.

The paving on the P. E. right of way of East Fourth street, from the Santa Fe tracks east to the city limits, was accepted as far as completed. The base only has been put in and the surface will be applied several months later. The Finley-Magill company did the work and the acceptance was made so that the company could collect from the railroad company.

FORMER SANTA ANANS TOURING CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Frank True Tell of Unfavorable Crop and Stock Conditions

Mr. and Mrs. Frank True, well known and highly esteemed former Santa Anans, now living upon and managing the Remington ranch near Chino, returned recently from a 1500-mile auto trip through the central part of the state, an account of which appears in the Chino Champion, as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. Frank True, of the Remington ranch, returned from a two-weeks' auto trip in the north. They visited relatives and friends in McFarland, Fresno, Stockton and Sacramento.

"Christmas they attended a family reunion at Sacramento. "Mrs. True's sister, Mrs. Mary Burbeck, of Canada, accompanied them home and will spend the winter with them. They covered about 1500 miles on the trip and did not even have the excitement of a flat tire.

"On the trip they met many old-time friends among them several prominent stock men, who are very gloomy over the long dry spell. "North of Modesto and around the bay the light rains and heavy fogs have started vegetation a little, but south of there the country is dry and bare. Very little snow has fallen in the mountains and the rivers are the lowest for over thirty years.

"Stock that is not being fed is very thin. Feed is high. Hay is selling at $20 per ton in the towns and around Delano and McFarland sheepmen are paying $25 per ton in the stock. Very little seedling has been done, except summer fallow.

"At Stockton potatoes are a drug on the market, owing to lack of cars for shipping. At Wasco they saw a shipment of nine cars of fat hogs, 842 animals, which brought the shippers over $29,000. "One car from the Hull ranch topped the market at $15.25 a hundred pounds."

The Hull referred to is probably H. G. Hull, who was formerly the proprietor of the Dragon confectionery in this city.

PRONOUNCED - "NEW-A-VO"-

Would you be interested in land that actually pays for itself in one season? Nuevo Ranch has done this several times this year, and for men who had little or no experience in farming. The crops were planted between the tree rows of young orchards. Nuevo ranchers do not have to wait until their trees mature for a good living income. This land produces almost from the very start.

The ever-increasing sales of Nuevo land testify to its worthiness. The development of this beautiful San Jacinto Valley tract during the past ten months has been marvelous. As one rancher remarked recently, "You can actually see Nuevo Ranch grow." New homes are springing up on all sides. Intelligent, wideawake settlers are coming in from all parts of the State. Nuevo Ranch is selling on the strength of its crop records, deep, fertile, stoneless soil, splendid mutual water system, and its healthful climate. Nuevo ranchers are happy, contented and prosperous. Go out and meet them face to face. Write or call for our Salesman's Manual which answers 120 questions about Nuevo Ranch—also illustrated booklet containing testimonial letters. Both booklets are free.

ROEPKE VISIT
SANTA ANA
AT CAMP
LEWISFind Boys in Fine Spirits, But
With Kick Against Tacoma

That the soldier boys at Camp Lewis are being held up right and left by all lines of business at Tacoma is the report Mr. and Mrs. Roepke bring from the camp. They passed their Christmas holiday vacation on a tour to San Francisco and Camp Lewis, being at the latter place on New Year's.

They heard many complaints from the boys as to the extravagant prices they are charged at Tacoma for most everything they buy. One night during the holiday season, Henry Wasserman, formerly Southern Pacific agent here, was held up for 75 cents for the privilege of sleeping on the floor at a Tacoma hotel.

All the Santa Ana men, Mr. and Mrs. Roepke met, are in fine spirits, are enjoying the camp and army life to the full. The visitors had the pleasure of eating a meal with the men, and they are loud in praise of the character of the meal served and the manner it was served.

Among the Santa Anas met on New Year's day were Geo. Platt, Les Williams, Jug Walters, Harold Nelson, Bob Collins, Murray Vandermast, Henry Wasserman, Chas. McClain and Chas. Brown.

GO BACK TO SOLICITING
FOR BUSINESSRailroad Agents Instructed to Return to Hustling
Just As Usual

The orders to local Santa Fe, Southern Pacific and Salt Lake men to quit hustling for business and to give up plans for competition were short lived. This morning the local S. P. office got instructions from the general passenger agent to go back to the old plan of competition. Similar orders came to the Salt Lake from its general passenger agent.

At noon the Santa Fe office had received no such order, but was expecting one, since the other roads had been notified to return to the former methods of seeking freight and passengers.

Agents are allowed to deliver tickets, solicit the sale of tickets and to collect freight.
